

I am writing in opposition to the new regulations regarding unsolicited fax documents. Although I absolutely DETEST fax advertising, I do not consider the faxes I receive from organizations to which I pay membership dues, to be "advertising." I sincerely hope the proposed regulations are revised to allow nonprofit organizations to continue to easily communicate with me (the thought of having to provide written "permission" to each organization that I belong to seems a bit daunting!)